

FWAHS and The Academy of Arts Drama Camp Week

Skills learned apply to life--not just onstage.
Strengthen old friendships and make new friends.
Be stretched and challenged spiritually to grow in new ways.
You don't have to LOVE drama to LOVE drama camp.
Spend a week immersed with other homeschoolers and Christian drama team making a story with spiritual impact come to life on stage.

Elementary Play: (1st-6th grade) (Must be 6 by January 1)

The Little Red Hen. A great play to remind us all how the diligent are rewarded. It also communicates that God gives grace to the humble. COST: $100

Meets Monday-Friday 9-12:30 and Performance 7pm Friday night.

One week age appropriate experience with dramatic skills onstage and some work behind the scenes. This play includes many speaking parts and singing for all. Every student will be VERY busy onstage even if they don't get a speaking part. Relevant chapels shared each day by Academy of Arts team.

High School Play: (7th-12th grade) (Must be 12 by January 1)

The Story of Esther. This exciting and powerful bible story will have deeper and richer meaning once students have spent the week working to bring it to the stage. COST: $150

Meets Monday-Friday 9-3:30 with Technical Rehearsal Thursday night and Saturday afternoon performance.

Hands on training in dramatic skills, stage crew, costumes, makeup, lighting, sound and media. The Academy team is serious about placing God first and giving Him the glory for whatever happens this week. Students will see this clearly in chapels and prayer times and even in the smallest circumstances. Play contains speaking and non-speaking parts with every cast member serving in vital ways. The smaller your part the busier you will be!

| DRAMA CAMP EAST (Barb Powers) | DRAMA CAMP WEST (Connie Abel) |
|---|--|
| Woodburn Missionary Church 5108 Bull Rapids Rd. Woodburn, IN 46797 Auditions: February 10th Camp: February 27-March 4 | The River Christian Church 1515 Magnavox Way Fort Wayne, IN 46804 Auditions: February 17th Camp: March 13-18 |

REGISTRATION for both weeks opens January 16th

Both weeks offer the same plays, but not necessarily the same Academy Team.

To learn more about the Academy of Arts go to www.theacademyofarts.org

To see information about the latest productions go to www.FWAHSdrama.org