

The Ant and the Grasshopper is the third of its kind in a series of children's musicals written by Nicole Stratton and her father Dr. Nicky Chavers. The musical is an exciting and colorful children's dramatic production based on the story of Aesop's fable "The Ant and the Grasshopper." It follows the lives of two little ants and two little grasshoppers who learn that God has given us the ability to know truth through His Word. Your children will enjoy this delightful musical, and your hearts will be blessed as you watch "The Ant and the Grasshopper."

Friday, September 29th at 7 p.m. - Woodburn Missionary Church
5108 Bull Rapids Road, Woodburn, IN 46797

No tickets required, freewill offering

John Bunyan's timeless allegory comes to the stage! Experience the epic tale of one man's journey from the City of Destruction to the gates of the Celestial City and all of the challenges, triumphs, and perils he faces along the way. From the Slough of Despond to the Palace Beautiful, the Valley of Humiliation and the stronghold of Giant Despair, this stirring classic is a must-see for all ages!

Saturday, September 30th at 2 p.m. – Woodburn Missionary Church
5108 Bull Rapids Road, Woodburn, IN 46797

No tickets required, freewill offering